The 2016 Waugh Zinfandel is delicious and beautifully balanced. When I asked my wife how to describe this wine she said “deliciousness”. This vintage presents a deeper richer fruit experience than Zins past, but enticing aromatics of fresh raspberries, cherry and a hint of black pepper explode out of the glass as you swirl. On the palate, ripe berries of all kinds and spicy dark chocolate come forward. The wine is complex, with bright acidity and some soft tannins are silky and smooth to lend a round, rich mouthfeel. Enjoy the Deliciousness!

Cheers!
